HENDRY COUNTY, FLORIDA CIVIL ACTION

CASE NO:

Defendant(s).

_____ /

STANDING ORDER IN CIRCUIT CIVIL CASES IN THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

PURSUANT to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure I .200(a), Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.545, and Administrative Order 1.13 (as amended) entered by the Chief Judge of this Circuit, the parties are ordered to adhere to the following information and procedures applicable to civil lawsuits:

1. SERVICE OF THIS ORDER. The Plaintiff is directed to serve a copy of this order with each Summons issued in this case. One copy of this Order is to be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court with proof of service. The Plaintiff shall pay the appropriate statutory clerk's fees for copies for each Standing Order issued and attached to the Summons.

2. CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM. The Supreme Court of Florida has established guidelines for the prompt processing and resolution of civil cases. This Court has adopted a case management system to help meet those guidelines. In contested cases (other than residential foreclosures, involuntary commitment of sexually violent predators, Extraordinary Writs, 90 day Notice of Medical Malpractice Claim, and Administrative Appeals), the parties are required to participate in the case management system. The parties shall submit an Agreed Case Management Plan within 60 days after service of the action upon the responding party. Failing that, the Court shall schedule a case management conference with notice to all parties. If the parties fail to either file their required Case Management Plan or fail to appear at the Case Management Conference, then the Court shall issue a Case Management Plan which shall be binding on all parties unless amended by further order of the Court. The form of the Agreed Case Management Plan may be accessed at the Court's website at: <http://www.ca.cjis20.org/web/main/civil.asp>. If a case management conference is scheduled, attendance by trial counsel and those parties who are not represented by counsel is mandatory.

3. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR). ADR provides parties with an out-of-court alternative for settling disagreements. The Court requires the parties to participate in ADR prior to trial. Mediation is mandatory unless the parties agree to another form of ADR. Mediation is a conference at which an independent third party attempts to arrange a settlement between the parties. The Court, at its discretion, may order the case be referred to Non-Binding Arbitration. Non-Binding Arbitration is the process in which the court refers a case to a registered arbitrator, or panel of arbitrators, who will hear evidence and make an award which may become a final judgment if a Motion for Trial De Novo is not timely filed pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. I 820(h).

4. FAILURE TO PROSECUTE. The Court will issue a Notice of Intent to Dismiss a case if there is no record of activity within a ten (10) month period of time.

5. RULES OF PROFESSIONALISM. The Twentieth Judicial Circuit has adopted Administrative Order 2.20, which sets forth standards of professional courtesy and conduct for all counsel practicing within the Circuit and self-represented litigants. The Court requires that all parties familiarize themselves and comply with Administrative Order 2.20. Administrative Order 2.20 may be viewed on the Court's website at: http://www.ca.cjis20.org/web/main/ao_admin.asp
