

IN THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR THE STATE OF FLORIDA

IN RE: JURY MANAGEMENT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

NO. 2.1

- VACATED -

WHEREAS, in 2006, the Supreme Court of Florida issued In Re: Jury Management System, No. AOSC06-13, identifying the objectives as (1) ensuring that an ample supply of jurors is available at the courthouse the day of jury selection, (2) ensuring that no citizen is unduly inconvenienced by being unnecessarily summoned or required to report for jury duty, and (3) ensuring that the Florida State Courts System is efficiently using the fiscal resources dedicated for the payment of juror per diem; and

WHEREAS, in consultation with the Clerks of the Courts of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit, it has been determined that local Administrative Order 2.1, In re: Jury Management, entered December 11, 1990, is obsolete and no longer serves to meet the objectives identified by the Supreme Court of Florida;

It is ORDERED that local Administrative Order 2.1, In re: Jury Management, is hereby VACATED.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Fort Myers, Lee County, Florida, this 1st day of March, 2023.

Michael T. McHugh
Chief Judge
